1. Adoption of draft agenda (PE 93.293/rev.)

The draft agenda was adopted. The Chairman noted that not all of the political groups had yet appointed members to the delegations and that the composition of the EP-US delegation was still incomplete. Nevertheless, in view of the forthcoming 24th meeting of delegations of the EP and the US Congress, a preparatory meeting had been called in order to hold a first exchange of views on the programme and agenda for the interparliamentary meeting.

2. In anticipation of the 24th meeting of delegations of the European Parliament and the US Congress, due to take place from 7 to 9 January 1985 in Brussels during the US Congress Delegation visit to Europe

a) exchange of views on issues for inclusion in the draft agenda for the 24th meeting of delegations

The Chairman announced that the US Congress side had already submitted a list of proposals for inclusion in the agenda for the 24th meeting. As usual, this followed the dual approach covering economic and trade issues on the one hand and political issues on the other. However, this list did not include a number of topics which were clearly of interest to the European Parliament.

Mr Penders, Mr Segré, Mr Härlin, Mr MacSharry, Mr Welsh and the Chairman then made a number of suggestions for specific items which might be placed on the agenda. These included:

- Latin America and Central America
- security questions, (arms control, "star wars", etc.)
- visa reciprocity
- US role in the World Bank and the IMF
- food aid.

The Chairman said that a fuller discussion of these and other proposals, based on a list to be distributed by the Secretariat, could be held at the delegation's next preparatory meeting, which could take place in Brussels on 26 or 27 November. The question of the appointment of first spokesmen on the various agenda items could be discussed on that occasion.

The meeting was closed at 16.00.
